

Pittsburgh International Airport Area Restaurant Guide

Edited by Laurie Mann (ldtmann@dpsinfo.com)

Most of the restaurants in the Western Pittsburgh suburbs fall into one of two areas: those in the University Blvd area, around the Doubletree Hotel (Area 1) and those near Robinson Town Centre/The Pointe, a shopping area where Routes 22 and 60 intersect (Area 2). To go between University Blvd. and The Pointe, just turn right from the Doubletree lot and follow the Orange Belt signs to The Pointe.

All restaurants and most bars in Pennsylvania are non-smoking by law!

Olive Press at the Airport Hyatt is very good and worth the $3 it would cost you to park at the short-term lot for 2 hours. 724-899-1234

It's less than a half hour to drive to Pittsburgh—Eleven, Six Penn, Sonoma Grille, Palomino, Soba and Tonic are all worth the trip.
